can speak, read and write the English ianguage, Gov. Cox would have a million majority.

"The stability of the American dollar is another issue that vitaliy touches our national life," said Mr. Marshall. "The stabilizing of that dollar is the next thing that must be done. By that I mean there must be an assurance that we can get as much for our dollar one year as another. It is a great economic we can get as much for our dollar one year as another. It is a great economic problem that confronts the Democratic party. If the Republicans were asked what they would do about it, the answer probably would be: "We will pass another Payne-Aidrich tariff law."

Mr. Marshall said that he had been personally anxious that the league question should not get into partisan politics.

DIVERS FAIL TO FIND BOY.

Continuing the search for Welbourne Davis, 4 years old, son of Paymaster John K. Davis of the Iona Island Naval Station, divers of the United States Navy searched yesterday in vain the Hudson River bottom around Iona Island, near Peekskill.

The boy vanished from home five days ago and posses of saliors, marines and Palisades Park policement are daily searching along the river shores and the adjoining woods. Paymaster Davis declares that he does not believe any one kidnapped the boy, as no strangers are permitted on the Island, which always is heavily guarded. It is possible that he wandered off, got lost and is either in the woods or in the keeping of some family who have been unable to identify him.
